

3DOM's Advisor Appointed as a Director of LAVLE Holdings, Inc.

October 10, 2019

As of October 7, 2019, Hiromichi Aoki became a Director of LAVLE Holdings, Inc. (headquartered in Anacortes, Washington State; CEO Jason Nye), an important majority owned joint venture company of 3DOM Inc. (headquartered in Yokohama City, Kanagawa Prefecture; Representative Director Masataka Matsumura).

LAVLE USA, a wholly-owned subsidiary of LAVLE Holdings, is engaged in development of propulsion systems intended for electrification of vessels (either hybrid of internal combustion engine and battery or full electrification) to be supplied to ferry boats in various areas of the U.S. and to U.S. Department of Defense as well as development of battery modules making use of the next generation batteries, such as lithium metal anode batteries and solid electrolyte batteries being developed by 3DOM.

Hiromichi Aoki worked for Kawasaki Kisen Kaisha, Ltd. ("K" Line) as its Representative Director and Senior Managing Executive Officer till the end of March 2019 and has been an advisor to 3DOM Inc. since July of the same year.

3DOM, a Japan-originated next generation battery entrepreneurial venture company, and LAVLE Holdings have firstly been conducting marketing in the U.S. and research & development. Depending on the progress of such efforts, 3DOM and LAVLE plan to come back to Japan and strengthen collaboration with Japanese maritime cluster including shipbuilding companies and manufacturers of parts and components for application to vessels.
